

The Illinois Self-Advocacy Alliance

Training Institute

The Illinois Self-Advocacy Alliance is a network of self-advocates, self-advocacy groups, and allies in Illinois focused on empowering people with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities to speak up and speak out.

With the experience and expertise of 10 years of supporting the self-advocacy movement in Illinois, The Illinois Self-Advocacy Alliance's Training Institute consists of self-advocate leaders and Alliance staff, ready to informative, engaging and relevant topics to your community or your school/agency/organization/group.

Please contact Tara Ahern, Project Director, at tara.advocacy@gmail.com to learn more about pricing and scheduling.

Presentation topics include

- Self Advocacy
- Universal Design/Accommodations
- Employment and Job Skills
- Guardianship
- Sexuality/Healthy Relationships
- Leadership Development
- Legislative Advocacy
- Bullying
- WIOA (Workforce Innovation Opportunity Act)

Continuing Education Units (CEUs) for trainings are available. Just ask us!

Illinois Self-Advocacy Alliance
P.O. Box 666
Park Forest, Illinois 60466
info@selfadvocacyalliance.com

The Alliance is proud to be an initiative of the Illinois Council on Developmental Disabilities

